MAY, 1901

Brookline Public Library.
June 6, 1901.

The photographs listed in this catalogue are mounted on uniform cards measuring 14 x 18 inches, and are kept in convenient cabinets where they may easily be examined. They are also loaned for home use, by special permission, in portfolios provided for the purpose.

The photographs may be borrowed for use in school by teachers, who are cautioned against allowing them to be soiled by the handling of children.

The entire collection numbering about a thousand photographs was purchased and mounted with funds generously subscribed in 1897 by the following citizens: Hon. Charles F. Sprague, Mrs. Arthur W. Blake, Miss Julia Goddard, Messrs. William Whitman, Joseph H. White, J. Randolph Coolidge, Charles S. Sargent, C. U. Cotting, William E. Cox, and Alfred Winsor.

The selection and purchase were kindly made by Mrs. Charles Knowles Bolton.

The collection has already met with cordial appreciation by the public, and is in constant use. Italian painters are fairly well represented, Dutch and Flemish less, and other schools hardly at all. The need of increasing the collection is evident, and for this purpose subscriptions — large or small — from persons interested will be welcome.
